

JOURNEY'S END—Rabbi Levi Belitzky, right, of the Jewish Sanitarium and Hospital for Chronic Diseases, last week presented to the institution's synagogue a Torah which had been buried in Siberia for 25 years and which he carried more than half-way around the world, through Russia, Poland, Czechoslovakia, France, Germany and Belgium. Rabbi Solomon B. Shapiro, left, looks on as Isaac Albert, center, accepts the Torah for the Joseph Chaim Albert Synagogue.
