

MAX BLUMBERG GIVES $10,250 TO THE JEWISH HOME FOR INCURABLES

The sum of $25,000 has been raised from a very small number of prominent guests who attended the informal dinner of the Jewish Sanitarium for Incurables, at which Max Blumberg, president of the institution, was the chief contributor.

Nathan D. Shapiro acted as toastmaster, and the following prominent speakers addressed the audience, explaining fully the necessity of a home and hospital for Jewish paralyzed and crippled, to be built in Brooklyn, for the first time in the history of the Jewish community: Hon. Joseph Barondess, Dr. Louis D. Gross, Jacob H. Cohen, treasurer; Rabbi Aaron D. Burack, Rabbi Nachman H. Ebin, Rabbi Abraham Miller, Hon. Arthur S. Somer, Hon. Geo. M. Curtis, Jr., Bernard Lebovitz, Jacob Rosen and others.

The new home is under construction at East 49th street and Rutland road, East Flatbush, Brooklyn, and as soon as the $100,000 drive for this building will be successfully terminated, the building will be ready to open its doors to the most helpless of the helpless—the homeless, paralyzed and crippled Jewish incurables of our borough. The following contributed at the dinner to the building fund:
