

JEWISH SANITARIUM FOR INCURABLES TO HOLD DINNER NOV. 3

* A dinner will be tendered by the Executive Committee of the $100,000 Jewish Sanitarium for Incurables Drive to the members of the Campaign Committee, workers and many friends.

This dinner which will take place on Wednesday, November 3, at 7 p. m. at the Brooklyn Jewish Center, 667 Eastern Parkway, will mark the official opening of the short and energetic drive for the above sum. The entire cost of the dinner is underwritten.

Despite the highly developed system of Jewish charitable activities in the borough, the Jewish Incurables, the paralyzed, crippled, armless and legless, the most helpless of the helpless have been neglected and are now without a Hospital-Home to cure, feed and shield them.

Max Blumberg, president of the Jewish Sanitarium for Incurables, with a group of most prominent and leading Jewish personalities of the borough, have organized a Campaign Committee with sectional sub-divisions throughout the entire borough in order to secure quick relief for the helpless Incurables.

At the above dinner Nathan D. Shapiro will act as toastmaster and addresses will be delivered by Justices of the Supreme Court, Mitchell May and Edward Lazansky, Dr. Louis D. Gross, Hon. Joseph Barondess, Rabb Aaron D. Burack and others.

In order to make this dinner a more intimate affair it has been announced that the dinner will be informal.

Reservations should be made through the phone, Cumberland 7272, or at the Campaign Headquarters, 26 Court street.
