

BROOKLYN EAGLE, THUR., MAY 7, 1953 15

HAPPY BAR MITZVAH—Isaac Albert, president of the Jewish Sanitarium and Hospital for Chronic Diseases, presents Albert Davidson with a "sidur" on the occasion of Albert's Bar Mitzvah, celebrated in the Joseph Albert Temple of the hospital. Rabbi Solomon B. Shapiro prepared Albert for his Bar Mitzvah, which was attended by more than 200 friends, relatives and fellow patients.

Final ANTA Forum

The final meeting of the ANTA Forum takes place today at 3 p.m. at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts. "The Theater's Place in Our Age of Anxiety" will be discussed by Burgess Meredith, Dr. Felix Marti-Ibanez, South American author and psychiatrist; Marc Connelly, Alfred Drake, Arnold Moss and Eva Gabor. Mrs. H. Alwyn Inness-Brown will preside.

Playland Goat Sick

Jiggs, the goat—that has been a prominent feature of the Goat House at Rockaway's Playland since the amusement park opened 25 years ago, is suffering from arthritis and rheumatism and has been withdrawn from active duty. The animal has appeared in a number of Hollywood films and has figured in countless newspaper stories and photographs.
