

JEWISH SANITARIUM ARRANGES TO ADMIT 200 PATIENTS SOON

Group Will Be at Institution in Time for Observation of Passover Holidays

Announcement that the Jewish Sanitarium for Incurables would admit its first 200 patients in time for orthodox observation of the Passover holidays, which begin at sundown, April 24, was made at a general meeting of the organization committee last night, at the institution, Rutland road and East Forty-ninth street.

Max Blumberg, president, also made known the receipt of a check for $4,500 from the Bedford division of the sanitarium. The money will be used in purchasing hospital equipment and furniture.

A house-to-house membership drive for 5,000 members was inaugurated. Mr. Blumberg exhorted present members to interest friends and neighbors in the charitable work.

Plans were discussed for the third annual dinner to be held at the Brooklyn Jewish Center, 667 Eastern parkway, Sunday evening, April 7. Reservations, which are $50 a plate, can be made through Mr. Blumberg, in care of the center.
