
HIGH HOLIDAY SERVICES AT BORO HOSPITAL

Services for the High Holy Days will be observed by patients and the public at the Jewish Chronic Disease Hospital, it was announced today by Isaac Albert, president.

Internationally known Cantor Chiel Hecht will officiate at the services for the public in the beautiful Auditorium Synagogue in the Leviton Pavilion.

Services for the patients will be conducted in the Joseph Chaim Albert Synagogue of the hospital by Cantor Solomon Wieder.

Arrangements for the services have been made by the Synagogue Committee, headed by Murray Ringelheim and by Rabbi Levi Boyotzki.
